Summary

Real Estate Settlement Procedure Act (RESPA)

Statement of Policy 1991-1

Regarding Lender Payments to Mortgage Brokers

Under current rules found in HUD's Statement Policy 1991-1 (64 FR 10080, March 1, 1999), in order to avoid possible findings of an illegal RESPA "Section 8" referral fee, a mortgage broker must perform "compensable services," and the actual fees charged for those services must be "reasonable." Lender and Broker agree that providing "compensable services" means that the Broker must do certain types and a certain minimum amount of work on each loan origination it provides to Lender. HUD guidance requires that in all cases the Broker must:

- I. Take information from the borrower and fill out the application (or, as an alternative, fill out a comparable borrower's worksheet).
- II. In addition in accordance with HUD rules, the Lender and Broker agree that the Broker must perform at least five of the following 13 other typical loan origination services specified by HUD:
 1. Analyze the prospective borrower's income and debt and pre-qualify the prospective borrower to determine the maximum mortgage that the prospective borrower can afford;
 2. Educate the prospective borrower in the home buying and financing process, advise the borrower about the different types of loan products available, and demonstrate how closing costs and monthly payment could vary under each product;
 3. Collect financial information (tax returns, bank statements) and other related documents that are part of the application process;
 4. Initiate/order VOsEs (verification of employment) and VODs (verification of deposit);
 5. Initiate/order requests for mortgages and other loan verifications;
 6. Initiate HVCC compliant appraisal orders through approved Appraisal Management Companies;
 7. Initiate/order inspections or engineering reports;
 8. Provide disclosures (truth in lending, good faith estimate, others) to the borrower;
 9. Assist the borrower in understanding and clearing credit problems;
 10. Maintain regular contact with the borrower, Realtors, lender, between application and closing to appraise them of the status of the application and gather any additional information as needed;
 11. Order legal documents;
 12. Determine whether the property was located in a flood zone or ordering such service; and
 13. Participate in the loan closing.
- III. Broker and Lender further agree that Broker shall in no way limit its additional services as specified above to only the "counseling-type" activities listed in paragraphs II-1, II-2, II-3, and II-9
